

David Karl, Instructor

Originally from Ohio, David spent over five years teaching English in Japan in the late 1990s before getting his master's in Linguistics/ TESOL from Ohio University in 2002. He then returned to Japan and spent the next five years teaching at Chubu University near Nagoya. He has recently returned, and he's very excited about teaching ESL at INTERLINK. In his free time, David tries to spend time with his wife, keep up with the news, read, listen to music, and play the guitar. He's very interested in American pop culture, and he's currently teaching a module on the history of rock music.
